

EXHIBIT 2

DIAGNOSIS - Meaning and Definition of the Word

Page 1 of 2

English Dictionary Computer Dictionary Thesaurus Dream Dictionary Medical Dictionary

Search Dictionary: DIAGNOSIS: Dictionary Entry and Meaning

Pronunciation: 'diug'nowsis

Matching Terms: diagnosingWordNet Dictionary*Definition: [n] identifying the nature or cause of some phenomenonSynonyms: diagnosingSee Also: blood typing, designation, identification, medical diagnosis, uranalysis, urinalysisWebster's 1913 Dictionary*Definition: \di'ag'no'sis\, n.; pl. {Diagnoses}. (NL., fr. Gr. ?, fr. ? to distinguish; dia- through, asunder + ? to know. See {Know}).]

1. (Med.) The art or act of recognizing the presence of disease from its signs or symptoms, and deciding as to its character; also, the decision arrived at.
2. Scientific determination of any kind; the concise description of characterization of a species.
3. Critical perception or scrutiny; judgment based on such scrutiny; esp., perception of, or judgment concerning, motives and character.

The quick eye for effects, the clear diagnosis of men's minds, and the love of epigram. --Compton Reade.

My diagnosis of his character proved correct. --J. Rayn.

(Differential diagnosis) (Med.), the determination of the distinguishing characteristics as between two similar diseases or conditions.

Medical Dictionary<http://www.hyperdictionary.com/dictionary/diagnosis>

3/9/2004

DIAGNOSIS - Meaning and Definition of the Word

Page 2 of 2

Definition: identifying a disease by its signs, symptoms, and laboratory findings.

Biology Dictionary

Definition: To identify the cause of a disease or condition based on observations of symptoms and oth

Thesaurus Terms

Related Terms: action, anatomic diagnosis, award, biological diagnosis, biopsy, clinical diagnosis, condemn, consideration, construction, cytodiagnosis, decision, decree, definition, deliverance, descrip, determination, dictum, differential diagnosis, digital examination, doom, electrocardiograph, electroencephalography, electromyography, examination, finding, interpretation, laborator, mammography, meaning, oral examination, order, Pap test, physical diagnosis, physical ex, postmortem diagnosis, precedent, prognosis, pronouncement, reading, resolution, ruling, a, serodiagnosis, smear, study, test, urinalysis, uroscopy, verdict, way of seeing, work-up.